I plan to go around it. By water." He could always make her laugh; he was the only one who could. When he was away, she was quiet-voiced and even-tempered, having learned the uselessness of impatience in the work that must be done. Sometimes she still scowled, sometimes she smiled, but she did not laugh. When she could, she went to the Grove alone, as she had always done. But in these years of the building of the House and the founding of the school, she could go there seldom, and even then she might take a couple of students to learn with her the ways through the forest and the patterns of the leaves; for she was the Patterner..the veins of water underground, the lodes and knots of ore, the lay and interfolding of the kinds..was high time to go back and find out what was going on now.."It's not Roke magic," the old man said. His voice was dry, a little forced. "Not to do with the.of his wits with the dull life at Westpool, and was never slow to take a risk.
