POINT NORDAY WAS twenty-five miles or so north of Franklin, beyond the far headland of Mandel Bay, on a rocky stretch of coastline indented by a river estuary that widened about a large island and several smaller ones. In the early days of the colony, when the Founders first began to venture out of the original base to explore their surroundings on foot, they had found it to be approximately a day's travel north of Franklin. Hence its name. "When you notice those pina colodas are garnished with live, poisonous centipedes," Micky warned, "Why don't you piss off," he growled at last. Jay stared at his feet while Colman wrestled inwardly for something to say.
